

I urge the commission to continue to limit the number or percentage of ownership to the present level. I can already see a difference in the news media on TV. The stations appear to be more an entertainment industry rather than reporting the news. We need many voices and viewpoints. I fear this will not happen if one corporation is allowed to own the majority of the media.